should happen while you are with us, though I do not expect it so soon - you & I can keep hands.
Please let brother T. know how I am situated.

We must prepare a letter in the Torrey case - I have all the scandals of the Balto Correspondent of the Boston Atlas - preserved for pickling.

Give my kind regards to yr wife -

Yours as ever

Dear Brother

I was grieved to see by yr note that yr health was not so good as usual. They put too much upon you.

You will hear, before this reaches you of poor Torrey's death. I got a letter this morning from Mr Bradley.
The body will be brought on to night.
I sent our letter, last Friday, to the Boston Atlas, through Charles Sumner Esq, requesting of the editor not as a favour, but as a mere act of justice, to publish it in his columns.

I shall be glad to see you at my house — and gladly would I ask brother Tappan — but — you may imagine how my family affairs are. Mrs C. however will not mind you as an old friend. If any thing
